Lost Prairie Lutheran Cemetery

The Lost Prairie Lutheran Cemetery is on the north side of highway 154 about 9 miles west of Pinckneyville. Lost Prairie Lutheran Cemetery was established about 1867 on two acres sold to the church by Philip Kraft for a consideration of $1.00.

The history of the church and cemetery is documented in a booklet published by the congregation in 1967 to celebrate their centennial.

In December 1968 about a week before Christmas the church and parochial school were destroyed by a tornado.

The Lost Prairie Cemetery is beautifully maintained by a perpetual care fund and is one of three cemeteries clustered with a city block distance from each other. The other two cemeteries are the Trinity Lutheran Cemetery on the south side of highway 154 and Galum Baptist Cemetery whose church building was also destroyed by the tornado in 1968. Monuments to both destroyed churches were erected on the original sites.

Huggins Cemetery

The Huggins Cemetery is south of Illinois Highway 154 and about one half mile east of the Cutler Tee in Township 5-4, on three acres of land donated by John Huggins.

An impressive gravestone sits near the middle of the cemetery marking John Huggins' grave. The inscription on the stone states that he was: "Born in Abbeyville District South Carolina December 4, 1800, came to Illinois in 1801, and settled in this place in 1826. Died March 23, 1883, aged 82 years, 3 months, and 19 days."

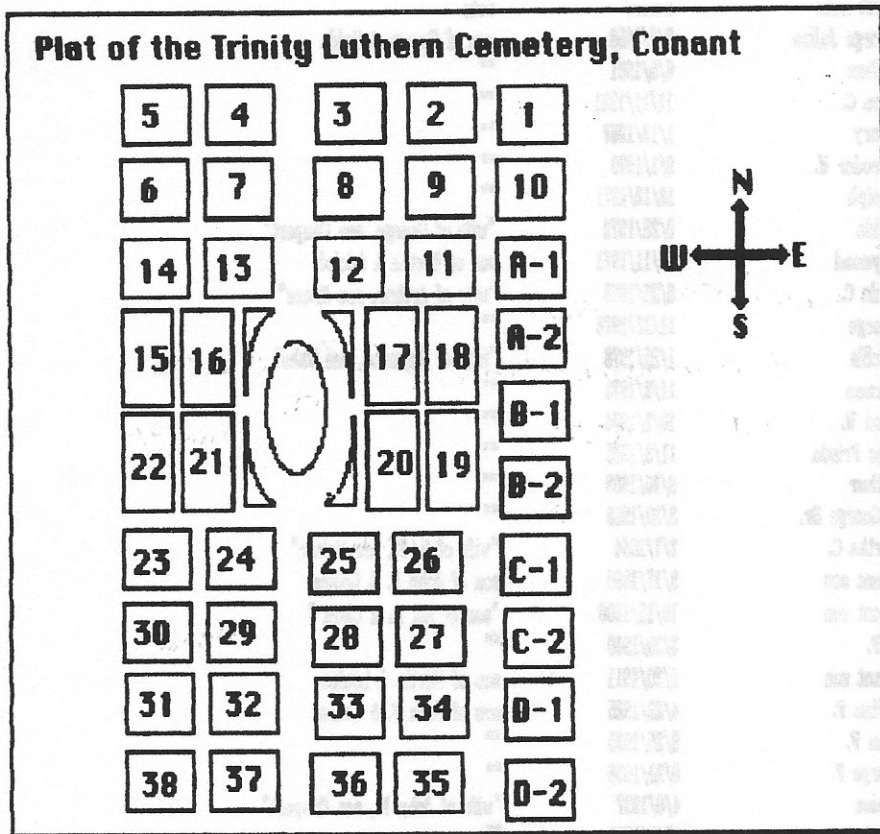

It is told that the Huggins Cemetery began with the burial of a woman who drown in nearby Galum Creek. A family was traveling through the neighborhood by horse and wagon when a big rain storm caused Galum Creek to overflow its banks. The family stopped at John Huggins' farm and stayed overnight. Next day, Mr. Huggins suggested that the family should wait until the flood subsided, but they were in a hurry to continue their trip and started out immediately. The rushing water overturned the wagon as they crossed the creek and the woman was drown. The woman was buried nearby in a peaceful wooded spot. Afterwards the Huggins family buried their members in the same peaceful spot. There are more burials in the Huggins Cemetery than recorded. In the past some graves were marked with nothing more than sandstone rocks brought from the creek. Miss Martha Huggins bought ground for a road to the cemetery and had it rocked for $400 when her sister, Madie died. When Martha and Madie's brother James Huggins sold the farm in 1950 he left his estate to the First Baptist Church in Pinckneyville, with the provision that they mow the cemetery three times a year.

John Murphy

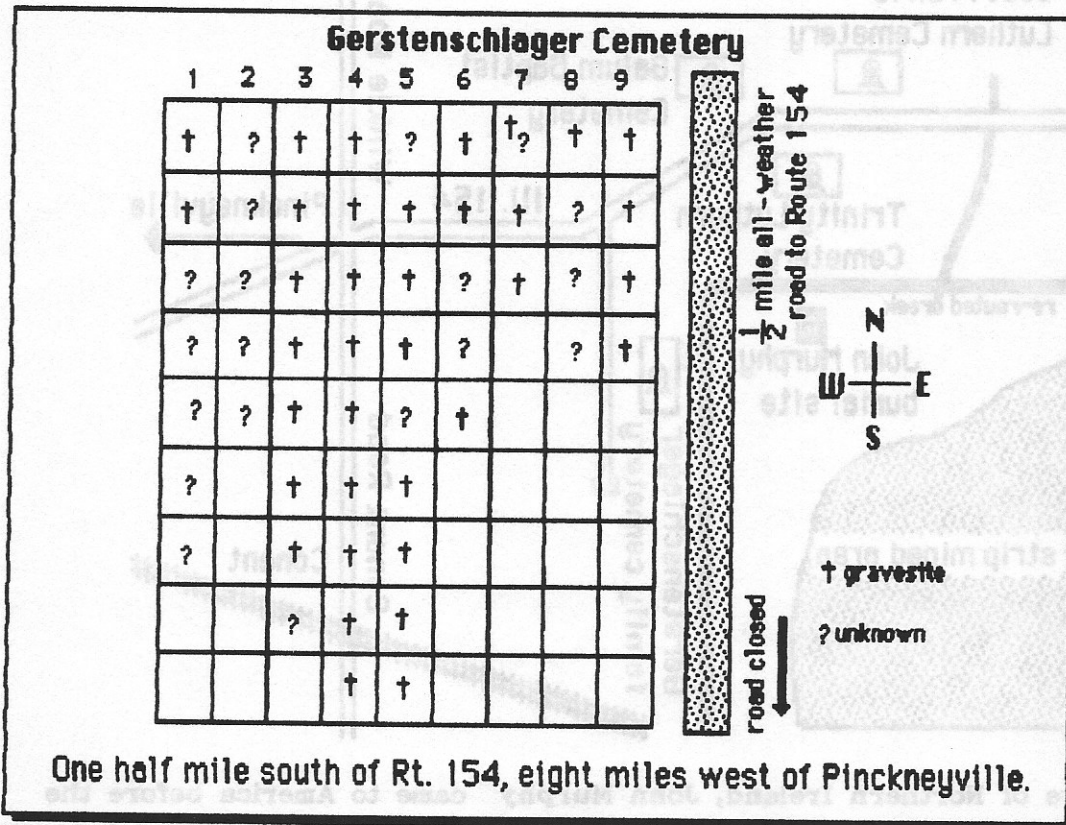

A native of Northern Ireland, John Murphy came to America before the American Revolution. He fought in the Revolution as a patriot. His war record shows that he fought in the Battle of King's Mountain.

John Murphy came to Illinois from Smith County, Tennessee in 1818, and settled on the edge of Lost Prairie, west of Pinckneyville. He was, by trade a stonemason and a farmer. He was married in North Carolina and he and his wife were the parents of five sons and daughters. Two families descended from him, and still living in Perry County are the Crawfords and the Rushings. There are no doubt many more.

John Murphy Sr. was listed in the census of 1825 as residing in Randolph County (this part was later to become western Perry County in 1827) but he cannot be found in the 1830 census. He probably died before the formation of Perry County; or before the pension law, so that he was unable to apply here. His wife died in the spring 1827 in Lost Prairie. Their graves have never been located but is almost certain that they are buried somewhere near their home which was later known as the Butler Nace Farm in Section 23, Township 5 South, Range 4 West

Gerstenschlager Cemetery

The Gerstenschlager Cemetery is about 8 miles west of Pinckneyville and a half mile south of highway 154. The strip mines have left it undisturbed next to an all-weather road. Balthasar Gerstenschlager founded the cemetery in the early 1840's and it is listed as a Pioneer cemetery in the Mormon records at Salt Lake City, Utah. No official cemetery records can be found, so all information has been handed down by relatives and many persons are buried in unmarked graves. The Gerstenschlager Cemetery, supposedly began when a farmhand or drifter working on a nearby farm died in the 1840's.

Betty Hasty, a descendant of the Gerstenschlager family, and her husband, Melvin now maintain the cemetery and they can be reached at 210 S. Greenwood Avenue in Du Quoin. They are the source of this information.

Township 6-4

1. Section 2, Wagner Cemetery; This cemetery has been moved by the coal company.
2. Section 4 Gillis Cemetery; West of the Tipple of the Jamestown mine.
3. Section 5, Cutler Cemetery; also known as the Mound Cemetery.
4. Section 10, Jinkens Cemetery; North and east of the Captain Mine tipple.
5. Section 13, Able Cemetery; Six graves and four of them have been moved to Galum.
6. Section 13, Jay Cemetery; A family cemetery. There is no good evidence that this cemetery existed.

7. Section 14, Heine Cemetery; two infants buried here, moved to St. Joseph's Cemetery in Cutler.
8. Section 14, Winsdor Cemetery; East of the Captain Mine tipple, three marked graves for the Winsdor family.
9. Section 15 Weitzel Cemetery; Across the road north of the Captain Mine tipple. There are several marked graves.
10. Section 16 Foens Cemetery; Northwest of the Captain Mine tipple, the graves have been moved to the Mound Cemetery.
11. Secton 18, St. Joseph's Cemetery.
12. Section 22, Elile Luthy Farm; The land is now owned by the AMAX Coal Company. Several Williams graves have been to the Pinckneyville City Cemetery; Levi Wheeler moved to Looney Springs at Campbell Hill, and at least three more graves remain.
13. Section 24, Cottom Cemetery; also called the Denmark Cemetery, and Crow Burying Ground.
14. Section 25 Schorn Farm; gravestones have been removed.
15. Section 26, Tangen Cemetery, also known as the Tow Cemetery.
16. Section 26, Harris Cemetery, doubtful if this cemetery ever existed. The county records shows a Harris family in this area who were Native Americans.
17. Section 35, Schröder Cemetery South of the Tangen Cemetery on a new road built by the AMAX Mining Company to the Jackson County Line Road. The cemetery is fenced and new stones have been erected by the coal company. There are three graves for the Schroeder family only. This is the original site, no graves have been moved. [no listing]

Wagner Cemetery

Moved to Conant.

Gillis Cemetery

The only information about this cemetery is given below. It is named after a man named Gillis who owned the farm this cemetery is on, and was a bachelor.

Burnell, John P. died July 7, 1858 aged 33 years, 12 days

Pyatt, Lydia E. born Nov. 16, 1828, died May 6, 1878

Cutler Cemetery

In the 19th century the Cutler Cemetery was known as the Concord Cemetery. In 1944 ground for the Cutler Cemetery was deeded to the Cutler Cemetery Association from the Western Presbytery Inc. of the Reform Presbyterian Church, General Synod North America, Sparta, Illinois. One acre was Deeded from the East Half of the Northeast Quarter, Section 5 Township 6 South, Range 4 West. As more ground was needed, it was bought lot by lot from Robert Brown. In November 1946 the remainder of the ground running south to the highway was bought from Mary E. Brown, widow of Robert Brown, Ralph and Genevieve Brown, and George and Myrtle Brown Campbell. On April 12, 1985 Verna Lee Dunhaupt, Inez Fiene, Jo Lynn Self; daughter and granddaughters of John Lunneman, deeded the ground for the east part of the cemetery. This eastern part of the Cutler Cemetery is now known as the Lunneman Addition.

The first cemetery board of directors of the Cutler Cemetery Association was formed in September 1946. The following persons were the first Board of Directors of the Cutler Cemetery Association:

Thomas Sprague
Everette McClure
Rev. Clifford Hay
Luther Smith
Allen Ervin
Joseph Smyth
Millus Glass
Altha Ervin, Secretary

The current (1992) board of Directors and officers are:

James Richmond, President
Lilian Myers, Vice-President
Erjuana Hartmann, Secretary/Treasurer
Everette McClure
Melvin Carrothers
Roy Conway

Detail of a lot

When entering St. Joseph Cemetery from the small community of Puxico, just outside of Willisville, Illinois, one notices the tranquil setting which is indeed a fitting tribute to the parishioners from St. Joseph Catholic Church who are laid to rest there.

On September 6, 1904 Father Francisces Sannella as pastor, and trustees Vincent Demmi Sr, and Emmanuel Bellucia of St. Joseph parish purchased five acres from Peter and Myrtle Ross of Sparta, Illinois for $125 to be used for a cemetery.

Father Ermengeld Senese arrived on April 15, 1905 in Willisville as the second pastor of St. Joseph. In 1906 Father Senese had two acres of the plat cleared and temporarily fenced and burials began.

St. Joseph's Cemetery

On August 24, 1909, Father Senese and the trustees, August Rheinecker and Anthony Cortese sold 85 feet from the east side of the cemetery tract of $50 to Vince Snider.

Prior to Father Joe Orford being assigned as the parish priest in 1957, the cemetery was neglected and in need of care. During his pastorate Father Orford had the cemetery surveyed and had one of the parishioners, Frank Todaro, to rebuild the fence with materials donated by parishioner Martin Giordano Jr. Frank Todaro remains the cemetery custodian to this day.

In 1949 Indiana Bedford Limestone altar and statues were installed at Holy Angels Church in East St. Louis, Illinois which was the parish of Leo Hayes prior to joining the priesthood. Now Father Leo Hayes is the priest of St. Joseph Church. In 1984 Father Hayes purchased the altar and statues from Holy Angels Church. On December 14, 1986 the altar and statues were erected and remain to add ever more of a tranquil setting to the St. Joseph Catholic Church Cemetery.

Schorn Farm

An abandoned cemetery with all markers removed and thrown into Pipestone creek by the owner previous to Ernest Schorn. AMAX Coal Company removed and reburied the remains of five persons in the Tangen Cemetery. It was believed to be the remains of four men and one woman.

Mrs. Elizabeth Spurgeon, believes from broken headstones around the site that two of the graves were those of Oliver and James Hankins, sons of Alney and Jennet Hankins. The Hankins family is listed in the 1850 census and A.N. Hankins owned the land, according to the 1853 tax book.

Harris Cemetery

It cannot be confirmed whether the Harris Cemetery ever existed. There was a Harris family who lived in this area and were listed as Native Americans in the 1880 census.
